SOUTH ASIA BY THE BAY 2017

OFFENSE!

The Public Life of Injury in South Asia

Center for South Asia
STANFORD

April 14 – 15, 2017

All Day

Stanford University

Department of Anthropology
Building 50, Room 51A

Student presentations will center around the themes of offense, public morality, notions of collective injury, historical injustice and outrage in South Asia. The conference is the sixth in the series and emerges from the collaboration between Stanford, U.C. Santa Cruz, U.C. Berkeley and U.C. Davis. This year it is hosted by the Center for South Asia at Stanford University.

Keynote Speakers:

William Mazzarella, Professor of Anthropology, University of Chicago

Jisha Menon, Associate Professor of Theatre and Performance Studies, Stanford University
